

JAN 28 1961

FBI's Hoover, 4 Others Cited as Communism Foes

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover and four others yesterday were given the "Vigilant Patriot" Award of the All-American Conference to Combat Communism.

The awards were presented by Senator Mundt, Republican of South Dakota, at a luncheon in the Army and Navy Club.

Mr. Hoover's recognition was based on his article, "One Nation's Response to Communism," which was translated and distributed by the United States Information Agency throughout Latin America.

The other recipients were Senator Dodd, Democrat of Connecticut, for his Senate address, "How Not to Promote Anglo-American Understanding," Gen. C. P. Cabell, USAF, deputy director Central Intelligence Agency, for his talk before the Dallas Council of World Affairs, Richard Arens, former staff director of the House Un-American Activities Committee for his public education program on "Communism Inside USA" and Robert T. Hartman, chief of the Washington Bureau, Los Angeles Times, for his article, "Khrushchev is 'Soviet' Man bred to rule by tension." An honor award also was given to the National Captive Nations Committee for the 1960 Captive Nations Week program.

Thomas J. Cuite, 1960 national chairman of the conference, presided at the luncheon.